CHAPTER I

Working of Alien

Part 1

General Provisions

Section 7. The work that may be engaged by alien as well as working area and period shall be prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation. In the issuance of such Ministerial Regulation, regard shall be had to national security, occupation opportunity of Thais and demand for alien labour as necessary for the development of the country. The matters to be prescribed may be different between general alien and the aliens under section 13 and section 15.

The provisions of paragraph one shall not apply to the working of aliens under section 12.

Section 8. In order to limit the number of aliens other than skilled workers or experts to engage in specific categories of works or in works with specific nature in the Kingdom, the Minister may, with approval of the Council of Ministers, impose by notifying in the Government Gazette the levy for hiring of aliens other than skilled workers or experts to engage in specific categories of works or in works with specific nature in the Kingdom.

Whoever desires to engage the alien under paragraph one shall notify the registrar in the form as specified by the Director-General and shall pay the levy at least three days prior to the date of hired contract.

Whoever fails to comply with the provisions under paragraph two shall be liable to surcharge at the rate of one-time of the levy to be paid.

Part 2 Work Permit

Section 9. No alien shall engage in any work other than the works under section 7 and the permit shall be granted by the registrar, except for the alien who enters into the Kingdom temporarily under the law on immigration so as to engage in necessary and urgent work for a period of not exceeding fifteen days and that alien may engage in that work after giving written notification to the registrar.

In the issuance of the permit, the registrar may impose any conditions to be complied with by the alien.

The permit, the application for and the issuance of the permit and the giving of notification under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the form and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

The Director-General may lay down the guideline for prescribing of the conditions under paragraph two to be complied with by the registrar.

Section 10. The alien who is eligible for the permit under section 9 shall have the place of residence in the Kingdom or has been permitted to enter into the Kingdom temporarily under the law on immigration in any status other than tourists or transit passenger and shall not have any prohibitions as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 11. Whoever desires to engage an alien living abroad to work for his business in the Kingdom may apply for the permit and pay fee on behalf of that alien.

The application for the permit on behalf of the alien under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 12. In granting of permission to any alien to engage in work in the Kingdom under the law on investment promotion or other laws, the authority who grants permission under such law shall without delay notify the granting of that permission in writing to the registrar together with other details as specified by the Director-General.

The registrar shall, after receiving the notification under paragraph one, issue the permit to that alien within seven days as from the date of receiving of such notification.

While awaiting for the permit under paragraph two, that alien may engage in work without regard to section 24 until the date of receiving of the permit as notified by the registrar.

Section 13. The alien who is not eligible for the permit under section 9 on account of the following grounds may apply to the registrar for the permit to engage in the works as notified in the Government Gazette by the Council of Ministers according to the recommendation of the Committee with due regard to national security and social impact:

(1) being deported under the law on deportation, but he is allowed to work at any place in lieu of deportation or while awaiting for deportation;

(2) having immigrated into or stayed in the Kingdom without permission under the law on immigration, but he is allowed to stay in the Kingdom temporarily while awaiting for deportation under the law on immigration;

(3) being lost of nationality by the provisions of the Announcement of the National Executive Council No. 337, dated 13th December B.E. 2515 or by other laws;

(4) born in the Kingdom but not entitling to Thai nationality by the provisions of the Announcement of the National Executive Council No. 337, dated 13th December B.E. 2515;

(5) born in the Kingdom but not entitling to Thai nationality by the provisions of the law on nationality.

The Council of Ministers may impose any condition in the Notification under paragraph one.

The application for and the granting of the permit under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 14. The alien having place of residence in, and being of nationality of, the country having common boundary with Thailand who enters into the Kingdom with travel document under the law on immigration may be permitted to engage in specific categories of works or in works with specific nature in the Kingdom temporarily through the specified period or season within the area which is adjacent to boundary or the area which is contiguous therewith.

An alien who desires to engage in the work under paragraph one shall submit the application, together with travel document, for temporary work permit to the registrar and shall pay fee in the amount as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

In granting of the permit, the registrar shall specify the permitted working area or work place, working period, category or nature of work and the employer to work with in accordance with the form and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

The provisions of this section may come into force in any area, to the alien of any nationality, for any category or nature of work, during any period or season and with any condition upon the Notification of the Council of Ministers as prescribed in the Government Gazette.

Section 15. The employee with the permit issued under section 9, section 11, section 13 (1) and (2) and section 14, particularly to the work as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation, shall remit money to the Fund as security for repatriation of that employee and the employer shall have the duty to deduct salary of that employee and remit the deducted money to the Fund.

The amount of money to be remitted to the Fund, the deduction of salary and the remittance of the deducted money to the Fund under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the rules, procedure, period and rate as specified by the Ministerial Regulation. The prescribed amount and rate may be different for the employees of different nationalities with due regard to the cost of repatriation of the employee of each nationality.

The provisions of paragraph one shall not apply to the employee having the receipt issued under section 16 paragraph one showing that he completely paid to the Fund or having the certificate issued under section 16 paragraph two and the employee who has shown in the evidence of the registrar that he completely paid to the Fund, particularly to the employee whose money has not yet returned under section 18 or who has not been repatriated.

Section 16. When the employer remits deducted salary of any employee to the Fund, the registrar shall issue the receipt to the employer. Such receipt shall at least specify name and identification number of the employee whose salary has been deducted and remitted to the Fund and the unpaid amount. The employer shall then deliver the receipt to the employee as evidence.

In the case where the salary of the employee has been deducted so as to remit to the Fund completely, the employer shall issue the certificate thereon to that employee as evidence.

If the certificate issued under paragraph two is lost or damaged, the employee may request the registrar for the substitution thereof.

The issuance of the receipt under paragraph one and the certificate under paragraph two and the issuance of the substitution under paragraph three shall be in accordance with the form, rules and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 17. The employer who fails to remit the deducted salary under section 15 to the Fund or remit an incomplete amount shall be liable to surcharge at the rate of two per cent per month of the unremitted or incomplete amount thereof.

Section 18. The employee who departs the Kingdom on his own expense shall be entitled to claim his deducted salary which has been remitted to the Fund. In this case, the employee may submit his request to the registrar at the port of entry he has to presence for his departure or posts his written claim to the registrar.

The employee shall, in making of the claim under paragraph one, attach the evidence under section 16 paragraph one therewith if the he has not yet paid the Fund completely or the evidence under section 16 paragraph two if the he has completely paid to the Fund.

The registrar shall return the deducted salary under paragraph one to the employee within thirty days as from the date of receiving the request or claim, as the case may be. If the registrar fails to return that money to the employee within the aforesaid period, the registrar shall return that money together with interest at the rate of seven point five per cent per annum since the expiration of the aforesaid period through the date the registrar returns that money to the employee.

The return of deducted salary and interest thereof under this section may be made in cash or cheque specifying the name of the employee or by transferring that money to the account of the employee in accordance with the rules as prescribed by the Director-General.

Section 19. If the employee who departs the Kingdom on his own expense fails, within two years as from the date he departs the Kingdom, to claim for his deducted salary remitted to the Fund under section 18, his right to claim for that money shall be terminated and that money shall devolve on the Fund.

Within two years as from the departing date, if the employee under paragraph one enters into the Kingdom and engages in the work as specified in the permit which is still valid or engages in the work as specified in the new permit and that work has been prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation enacted under section 15, as the case may be, that employee shall be exempted from deduction of salary so as to remit to the Fund, except where the deducted salary which is remitted to the Fund of that employee has not yet completed, the employer shall deduct salary of that employee so as to remit to the Fund until the completion thereof.

Section 20. If the employee has to be repatriated, the Fund shall provide money for the expense of repatriation of that employee.

In the case where the money remitted to the Fund of the employee to be repatriated has not yet completed, the Fund shall provide only for the deficient, except where the employee engages in work in the Kingdom on demand of the employer, that employer shall be liable to the deficient and the Fund shall collect the deficient from that employer.

Section 21. The permit granted under this Act shall be valid for not exceeding two years as from its granting date, except the permit which is granted to the alien under section 12 shall be valid through the period he has been permitted to work under such law.

The period of the permit under paragraph one shall not extend the period to stay in the Kingdom under the law on immigration.

Section 22. In the case where the period of work of the holder of permit under section 12 has been extended under such law, the licensor under such law shall notify the extension of that period in writing to the registrar in accordance with the form as specified by the Director-General as soon as possible and the registrar shall file that extension in the permit.

Section 23. Prior to the expiry date of the permit, if the holder of permit desires to continue engaging in that work, he shall apply for the renewal of that permit to the registrar.

Upon submission of the application under paragraph one, the applicant may engage in that work until the registrar refuses the renewal.

The period of each renewal shall not exceed two years and the renewal shall be made only in necessary case so as to deter the settlement of alien in the Kingdom. In the case of the alien under section 13 (1) and (2), the consecutive period of work to be renewed shall not exceed four years, except where otherwise prescribed by the Council of Ministers occasionally.

The application for and the granting of renewal shall be in accordance with the rules and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 24. A holder of permit shall keep the permit on himself or at the place of work during work in order that it may be readily shown to the competent official or registrar.

Section 25. If the permit is lost or damaged, a holder of permit shall apply for its substitution to the registrar within fifteen days as from the date that loss or damage has known to him.

The application for and the granting of the substitution of the permit shall be in accordance with the rules and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 26. A holder of permit shall engage in work of the category or nature and with the employer and at the area or place and conditions as permitted.

The holder of permit who desires to change or add category or nature of work, employer, working area or work place or conditions shall be permitted by the registrar.

The application for and the granting of the permission shall be in accordance with the rules and procedure as prescribed by the Ministerial Regulation.

Section 27. No person shall engage an alien to work for him other than the holder of permit and in the work of the category or nature and at the working area or work place as specified in the permit.

Section 28. If the holder of permit violates or fails to comply with the specified conditions, the registrar shall have the power to revoke the permit.
